The homesteaders who have entered Indian lands in the Isabella reservation declare they will not get out, notwithstanding the Indian agent has told them they must go. They say the government has issued them the certificates on which they had entered the lands, and must defend its own acts.—Det. Journal.

A calico dress can be bought in this country as low as 6 cents per yard, a sum equivalent to the duty. If the price is increased by the duty calico dresses cost nothing in England. And yet the people go ragged. The fact is they cost more in England than here. And this is true of all staple cotton goods. A stuff dress can be bought here as low as 10 cents per yard, while the duty is 17 cents. Thus on the theory that the duty is a "tax" in England these dresses are given away and 7 cents a yard bonus for taking them.—Blade.

Congressman Mills says that if the democrats get control of both branches of congress, and if Cleveland is re-elected, the laboring men of this country will be put upon a plane of equality with the laboring men of all other countries. If that doesn't mean reduced wages in this country, please tell us what it does mean.—Det. Trib.

The total of the number of years served in the army by the 42 veterans who were discharged from the government service by such men as Dickenson, is 197 years—and in the government civil service, 420 years. Notwithstanding all this, Dickenson claims that they had outlived their usefulness, and were discharged for the good of the service.

The number of old soldiers discharged from the government service in Michigan, as far as heard from, is 42, and but four of their places have been filled by veterans of the democratic faith. The balance of the positions have been filled by bunnies, ward-workers, etc., one of which did not know what the letters M. C. meant when attached to an address on a letter. This accounts, in part, for the inefficiency of the mail service in this State. In Indiana it is much worse. Bernard Conroy, of Indianapolis, was appointed into the mail service on the recommendation of W. R. Myers, Sec. of State, and now the candidate for Lieut. Gov. He stated that he had known him for a longtime. In that time he had served two terms in the penitentiary. Old veterans are inefficient, inefficient at stuffing ballot boxes and forging election returns.

The American Agriculturist for October contains several useful and sensible articles upon the care of stock. "Fall and Winter Feeding of Young Stock," is the subject of an article by Prof. W. A. Henry, director of the Wisconsin Experiment Station. A table is given showing the result of experiments made at the station in feeding sixteen calves from good, common dairy stock up to the age of two years, the point emphasized being that a young animal gives far better returns for feed consumed than an old one. An article by Nidy Morgan in the same number treats of the feeding and care of the pig, and the live stock notes are full of suggestion, and advice that are timely reading for the farmer at this season of the year. There is also a practical article on good and bad horse-shoeing, and one treating of the diseases of young fowls.

Democratic papers are claiming that Thurman's residence was decorated during the Grand Army encampment at Grayling, on the occasion of a statement made by his son. A committee of six, three democrats and three republicans were appointed to visit Thurman's residence and see if the report was correct that it was not decorated. They did so. Their report was that there was not a single flag on the house but that they found two small flags not a foot long lying on the ground by the gate posts. If American flags are as scarce in the households of democrats in Columbus as they are in those of Grayling, the failure to display them is easily accounted for. The democratic club does not even own one, and four years ago had cheek enough to hoist one on their pole that belonged to the town without permission. Their emblem is the bandanna and all are supplied at present, if not heretofore.

Sharp Practices.
"Some months ago, some of the local democracy engaged the Opera House for Nov. 3rd and 5th, thinking they could thereby prevent the republicans from holding any large meetings on the eve of the election. To meet their actions the republicans engaged the new court-room from the contractor, Mr. I. M. Silsby, which was sanctioned by Sheriff McCullough, in whose charge it would be if the county should have any control over it at that time.

On learning of this, the aforesaid democrats prevailed on Supervisor Jackson to introduce a resolution before the board of supervisors forbidding the use of the room. The motion was not supported, as a majority knew they had no authority in the premises.

Such practice exhibits the depth to which democratic partisan action may go, but it is condemned by honest men of both parties and will cost votes for the perpetrators.

A Warning.
The methods of death's approach are various, and statistics show conclusively that more persons die from diseases of the Throat and Lungs than any other. It is probable that everyone, without exception, receives vast numbers of Tubercle Germs into the system and where these germs fall upon suitable soil they start into life and develop, at first slowly and is shown by a slight tickling sensation in the throat and if allowed to continue their ravages they extend to the lungs, producing Consumption and to the head, causing Catarrh. Now all this is dangerous and if allowed to proceed will in time cause death. At the onset you must act with promptness; allowing a cold to go without attention is dangerous and may lose you your life. As soon as you feel that something is wrong with your Throat, Lungs or Nostrils, obtain a bottle of Bosc's German Syrup. It will give you immediate relief.

John G. Berry, Our nominee for State Senator for this District, was born in New York City December 15th, 1838, and at the time of the civil war was engaged in farming and mining in the Upper Peninsula. He enlisted in Co. A, 16th Mich. Inf., Aug. 3, 1861, for three years, and at the expiration of his term of service re-enlisted for the war in the same company and regiment. During his soldier life he served as a private, corporal, sergeant, 1st lieutenant and captain. Belonged to the 3rd Brigade, 1st Division 5th Army Corps, and was in all the battles of the Army of the Potomac after Aug. 3, 1861, to the surrender at Appomattox, with the single exception of the battle of Fair Oaks, the 5th Corps at that time being engaged in action at Hanover Court House. He was wounded at the battle of Fredericksburg in the right arm by a minnie bullet. At the close of the war he was honorably discharged from the service, and for a number of years was employed as a clerk in a large wholesale hardware store in the city of Detroit and subsequently engaged in real estate business in that city. In 1878 he moved into Otsego county and engaged in saw-mill, grist-mill and general store business at the village of Berryville. At present he is engaged in running a general store at Vanderbilt. Mr. Berry has been identified with the society of the G. A. R. ever since its establishment. He was the first Commander of Gen. Harker Post, No. 264, at Vanderbilt, and has been delegate to State and National Encampments several times, having been elected with Gen. Alger and others to attend the National Encampment at St. Louis in 1887. He has also been president of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Association of Northern Michigan and is widely known in that society. During Mr. Berry's long residence in Otsego county he has built up an enviable reputation as a man of strict integrity. He combines many elements of strength as a candidate and has already commenced a canvass that bids fair to be successful.—Otsego Co. News.

Now is the time to think what Magazine you will take during the coming year; and we would suggest that, before deciding, you send for a copy of Demorest's Monthly Magazine for October, which has just arrived, suggests to us that this is the Queen of the Family Magazines. We do not see how such a magazine can be published for only $2 per year. The beautiful water-color in this number ("Afternoon Tea") is worth more than the price of a single number, and the articles and illustrations are equal to those in the $4 magazines. The first article, "On an Ocean Steamer," is beautifully illustrated, and not only of these floating palaces, but tells some interesting facts about life aboard one, how much food is consumed, etc. After a very long list of interesting literary matter, comes the Fashion Department; and one of the great features of this is that in each number is printed an order entitling the holder to the selection of any pattern manufactured. Here is a present of at least 25 cents; and the Magazine is sold for only 20 cents per copy. Published by W. Jennings Demorest, 15 E. 14th St., N. Y.

Mrs. Alice Miles, of Detroit, the widow of a veteran, has been an inmate of the poor house for two years. Her claim for pension was allowed last week, and the democratic officers of that county seized a large portion of it for her maintenance during that time. There is nothing under the sun that exceeds the mean and low disposition of the members of the democratic party from Cleveland down to the lowest henchman, when they have a chance of displaying it on a veteran, or his widow and children.

Bucklin's Arnica Salve.

Is Consumption Incurable?
Read the following: Mr. C. H. Morris, Newark, Ark., says: "Was down with Abscess of Lungs, and friends and physicians pronounced me incurable. Consumptive. Begun taking Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, am now on my third bottle, and able to oversee the work on my farm. It is the finest medicine ever made." Jessie Middlewart, Decatur, Ohio, says: "Had it not been for Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption I would have died of Lung Trouble. Was given up by the doctors. Am now in best of health." Try it. Sample bottles free at Dr. N. H. TRAVLER'S Drug Store.

Don't Experiment.
You cannot afford to waste time in experimenting with quack remedies in danger. Consumption begins at first only a cold. Do not permit any dealer to impose upon you with some cheap imitation of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, which is guaranteed to give relief in all Throat, Lung and Chest affections. Trial bottle free at Dr. N. H. TRAVLER'S Drug Store. Large bottles 15¢.
